

Creative Makers is a group that began making items to sell at our Needle Arts Fundraising sales. They continue to meet to work on interesting needle arts projects together, most being small creative sewing projects.